

OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT COUNSEL

Date of transcription 05/01/98

FREMONT No Middle Name (NMN) MYLES, JR., Officer, United States Secret Service (USSS), Uniformed Division (UD), date of birth [REDACTED], was interviewed at the Office of the Independent Counsel (OIC), 1001 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC, 20004. Present for the interview were Associate Independent Counsel (AIC) MICHAEL TRAVERS and AIC MARY ANNE WIRTH and Department of Justice (DOJ) attorneys GARY GRINDLER and JONATHAN SCHWARTZ. MYLES was interviewed under the terms of an agreement reached between the OIC and the DOJ. After being apprised of the official identity of the official identities of the interviewers and the nature of the interview, MYLES provided the following information:

MYLES has been employed by the USSS since April of 1990. After working three years on the outside of the White House grounds, MYLES was stationed at the [REDACTED] post, which is located inside the East Wing. MYLES sketched a diagram of the area near [REDACTED], which is attached to this FD-302. In March of 1997, MYLES was transferred to the USSS office at 13th and L Streets, Northwest, Washington, DC.

MYLES advised the [REDACTED] post was the entrance used for tours of the White House. MYLES worked the B and C shifts while stationed at the [REDACTED] post. MYLES advised the Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) was on the other side of double doors from [REDACTED].

MYLES can not say for sure exactly when he first met MONICA LEWINSKY, but he saw her often when she worked at the OLA. MYLES believes it was when LEWINSKY was new to the East Wing of the White House. MYLES advised that Uniformed Division officers are told by superiors not to mingle with White House passholders. MYLES advised the first time he saw LEWINSKY, he said hello to her, but she did not respond. MYLES advised that from that point on, he did not engage in conversation with LEWINSKY.

MYLES can not recall ever being posted in the West Wing of the White House. MYLES never saw LEWINSKY in the West Wing. MYLES never told anyone he saw LEWINSKY in the West Wing. Sometime during LEWINSKY's tenure at the White House, MYLES saw her crying. MYLES asked LEWINSKY if she was okay, and LEWINSKY
